Puts
a
Hoosier
in
Your Home

- Places for 400 articles all within arm's reach.
- 40 labor-saving features, each like a helping hand.
- The Hoosier will cut your kitchen work in half.
- Will save you miles of steps.
- Will save you hours of weary toil.
- Will make it a pleasure to cook and bake.
- Will save your energy and beauty, and keep you feeling young and strong.
- Will help you get good meals quickly.
- Will help you tidy up in just a few moments when the meal's over.

A Centralized Storehouse

The Vital Part of Your Cabinet

The picture above shows how the scientific arrangement of the Hoosier makes it a real helper. Storage space is above and below. There is plenty of unhampered room above and around the aluminum (or porcelain) work-table.

There are no useless little partitions to chop up the space and leave no room for work. Your cabinet must have big table space to work on. The Hoosier gives it.

Come and see these six exclusive Hoosier features:

- 1—The all-metal glass front flour bin.
- 2—The gear-driven shaker flour sifter which makes flour light and fluffy.
- 3—Scientific arrangement—articles needed most frequently easiest reached.
- 4—Revolving caster (shown in center of illustration).
- 5—The ingenious, big-capacity sugar bin—holds more than twice as much as most other bins.
- 6—Finally, either doors with a handy rack for small utensils, or rolling doors.

We Can Tell You About the Hoosier—But You Must See It

We can talk about these wonderful conveniences, but to really appreciate the great amount of time the Hoosier will save you, you must see and examine these features yourself in our store.

Just remember that tomorrow for only $1 you can start using these labor-saving features in your kitchen.

Have a demonstration of its exclusive work-saving features. No obligation incurred if you don't want to buy now. But at least learn why over a million women can't do without a Hoosier.

REGARD MINNESOTA SAFE FOR THE G. O. P.

Managers Feel Certain That Hughes Will Have State by Fair Margin.

GREAT VIGOR IN CAMPAIGN

Special Dispatch to The Star.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., October 7.—As the parties come to closer grips in Minnesota, republican confidence is increasing. Discoveries of the disaffection toward Hughes came early enough so the situation could be closely diagnosed and steps taken to overcome the defect. What it was most pronounced. Now that the state has been pretty well canvassed republican managers feel certain that Hughes will have the state by a fair margin, not up to normal, but sufficient to be safe.

Vigorous Campaign Planned.
This feeling is predicated on a vigorous, effective campaign for the next month. Experience has demonstrated already that many republicans who lean to Wilson can be brought into line by argument. The campaign has advanced far enough to show what are the most effective arguments and effort will be concentrated on them hereafter.

Senator Knute Nelson struck the keynote for other republican orators in Minnesota with his address to a farmers' gathering at the inland hamlet of Sunburg. The senator's address was fully prepared and widely published over the state, was mainly a critical analysis of democratic legislation, just long enough to ridicule the claim that "Wilson kept us out of war," but he touched up democratic tariff and financial legislation with a keen scalpel, and led up to the Adamson "eight-hour" law as a climax. He analyzed the "President's position in masterly fashion and wound up by declaring that the farmers and the general public will have to bear the brunt of the President's "generosity" to the railroad trainmen.

Personal Tribute to Nelson.

The meeting was a great personal tribute to Senator Nelson. More than 1,000 attended in spite of the remote location, and the other speakers vied with each other in praising the old "viking," who declared that the present is probably his last political campaign. One speaker quoted Edith Roosevelt as saying that if Knute Nelson had been born in the United States he would have been a president. Senator Nelson paid a high compliment to Frank B. Kellogg, his prospective colleague, Mr. Kellogg followed with a short talk for Hughes, and S. R. Van Sant, former governor, was among the other speakers.

Mr. Kellogg and other republican candidates are getting into the fight for Hughes actively and without any straddling. The republican state and local organizations, convinced that the state ticket is beyond any danger, are concentrating their efforts on Hughes. Mr. Nelson is to start next week on his campaign, and it is reported that he will make it largely on national issues. The cue has gone out to "lay off Wilson" and "build up Hughes," and that will be the policy from now on.

Plan for Headliner Orators.

Chairman Fred E. Wheaton of the democratic state committee returned this week from a visit to the Chicago headquarters, where he appealed for some headliner orators, declaring that Minnesota is doubtful and can be won by an aggressive democratic campaign. He returned with the promise that several big speakers will be sent here, probably former Gov. Martin Glynn of New York, Sen. George W. Perkins of New York, and Judge Albert Norton of St. Louis. The "volunteer democratic committee," which has state headquarters here to work independent of the Lynch organization for the national ticket, is making little headway in recruiting workers all over the state under its banner, men who refuse to work with the regular party organization. This committee and the regular state committee are in two separate hotels, a block apart, and in still another hotel the democratic county committee has opened headquarters to handle the local campaign.

Democrats See a Chance.

The republican committee is powerless to make a fight for Lowell E. Jepson in the tenth district, because Thomas D. Schall, the present congressman, has been recognized by the national committee, stumped in Maine for Hughes and is being supported by many progressives who are also for Hughes. Jepson is making a personal campaign with the odds against him. The democrats hope to slip through here with Neil M. Cronin, their candidate, in the three-cornered fight, but they failed in a similar undertaking two years ago, and Schall still has the inside track.

The Farmers' Non-Partisan League in North Dakota has proclaimed as part of its program the making of all state officers and the legislature non-partisan. They expect to put that idea through the legislature next winter, and in Minnesota, where the league also is extending its efforts, it is also being talked. The Minnesota legislature is non-partisan already. It would be a logical step to make state officers non-partisan also. Judges and county officers have been removed from politics, and only congressmen and state officers remain. An effort is to be made on the other hand to restore the legislature to party lines after two sessions' experience with the non-partisan idea. Efforts to clear the Minnesota ballot of progressive party men have not been entirely successful. Nine of the twelve men nominated as electors in March have acceded to the request of the state committee, backed by M. D. Parry, national committeeman, and have sent in resignations. Two have not been heard from at this writing. The other, E. J. Meier of St. Paul, announced that he will not withdraw that he is for Wilson, and that he will stay on the ballot to help Wilson by splitting up the vote. He will go on the ballot as standing only for John M. Parker for Vice President.
